CHEERS FOR PRESIDENT

Tumulty Children Join in Fun on the Lawn-5,000 on Grounds During Day.

During Day.

From the south portice of the White House President Wilson, his wife, their three daughters, and several of the "White House children" and members of the official family, yesterday reviewed part of the activities of Easter Monday, the day sacred to the 'kida." It is estimated that 2,000 children and 2,000 of their eiders disported and the number of eggs "chiled." "cracked," and finally as the same of eggs "chiled." "cracked," and finally as a beyond all computing. It was an ideal egg-rolling day, and from early morning until the police shooted the crowds out at 2,20 o'clock in the afternoon the kids romped, shouted, cracked, and ate Easter eggs. It was unouestionably the greatest and most auspicious egg-rolling in history. "They are standing around here to see the President and his family," said one of the White House policemen, when saked why the crowd had gathered at the south entrance to the Executive Mansion. "They have been mighty sociable so far, and the preople expect them to rome out again."
